

The background of the entire image is a waving American flag with its characteristic red and white stripes and a blue field with white stars.

NEW YORK - NEW YORK !

Novembre 2016 – 7 giorni

Viaggio di Gruppo

Empire State B - N.Y. Public Library – St. Patrick – Grand Station – Fifth Avenue - Rockefeller Center – Times Square Manhattan – Central Park, Metropolitan Museum, Battery Park, Ellis Island, World Trade Center, Memorial Museum, Harlem, Gospel, Guggenheim Museum, Little Italy, Chinatown, Brooklyn Bridge, High Line, Greenwich village, Queens

by Maurizio Franzolini

by Maurizio Franzolini

A dx la Freedom Tower
(ha sostituito le Torri Gemelle)

WALL STREET

TOWER LADDER 15

15

In Memory of
Dr. J. Murphy
Dr. G. Kelly
Dr. S. Olan
Dr. A. Berg
Dr. G. Karpis
Dr. E. Jones
Dr. G. Daniels
Dr. M. Allen

FDNY

4

St. Patrick

Brooklyn bridge

Cosa
centra
con
New York?

.... era freddo!

Central Park

Central Park

Little Italy

Little Italy

Chinatown

Verso Ellis Island

Liberty Island

and Saethan Hartman with their five children in Marash, Turkey. The family immigrated to the U.S. in 1922 to escape persecution in Turkey.

...son, Finland. The children's widowed mother
...Fitchburg, Massachusetts, and brought her children over one-by-one.
Imkeri was 9 years old when she left in 1914.

George Marrett, a Ukrainian Jew, seen in his army uniform, ca. 1913, some years before he came to the U.S.

Sela, Yehoshua, and Anshel Shapir in Tzfat, Austria-Hungary, before sailing to America in 1907. The father was now blind and his mother worked for them from the same lot of silk. They were joining their father in Illinois.

Yehuda Tzvi Shapir, a Soviet refugee, joined a wife in England in 1921.

Yehuda Shapir with his children, Anshel and Sela, in Tzfat, Austria-Hungary, before joining the Shapir in Southampton in 1907.

...years old when his parents immigrated from Norway in 1893.

The children of the Sidney Pike family at their home in Kirby, England, ca. 1903, some years before their immigration to the U.S.

Giuseppe La Scola with his five children in their passport photo. The family from Sardinia, Italy, set sail in 1910 to join the La Scola in New York.

Fotografie di immigrati nel centro di accettazione di Ellis Island

Wall Street

Metropolitan Museum

Metropolitan Museum

Ground Zero

A spasso per la High Line

Path

Stazione metro dell'architetto Calatrava

Rockefeller Center

Guggenheim Museum

Saks – Fifth Avenue

Aspettando Natale !

Concerto Gospel (dal vero !!!) nel Bronx

STAPLES

SKECHERS

AMERICAN EAGLE
OUTFITTERS

AMERICAN EAGLE
OUTFITTERS

NYPD
POLICE

POLICE

NYPD

5528

Enrico, la nostra
bravissima Guida
a New York

Edificio nel Queens
con la cratteristica
scala di sicurezza

GOOD BYE
NEW YORK !

www.associazioneilvento-fvg.it